

Record of Officer Decision

Review of Political Balance and Appointments to Committees and Working Parties

Decision Taker and Date Decision Taken:

Governance Support Manager on 6 February 2018, in consultation with Councillors Amil, Excell, King, Mills and Parrott.

Summary of Matter or Issue Requiring Decision:

At its meeting on 1 February 2018, the Council determined the political balance on committees and working parties following notification that Councillors Amil, Excell, Mills and King wished to be known as ungrouped Independent members on the Council and Councillor Parrott wished to be known as a UKIP member. The Governance Support Manager was given delegated authority to determine the designation of seats to the ungrouped Independent members, in consultation with the ungrouped Independent/UKIP members.

The councillors concerned were consulted on 6 February 2018 and the seats have been designated as set out in the decision below.

Decision Taken:

Further to the decision of Council on 1 February 2018 delegating designation of seats to ungrouped Independent members to the Governance Support Manager, the designations have been determined as follows:

Committees:

Councillor Amil – Civic and Harbour Committees
Councillor Excell – Investment and Licensing Committees
Councillor King – Appeals (School Transport) and Development Management Committees
Councillor Mills – Employment and Licensing Committees
Councillor Parrott – Housing Rental Company and Licensing Committees

Working Parties:

Councillor Amil – Airshow Working Party
Councillor Excell – Children's Services Monitoring Working Party
Councillor King – Adults Services and Public Health Monitoring Working Party
Councillor Mills – Community Asset Transfer Panel
Councillor Parrott – Corporate Parent Members Group

Summary of Reason(s) for Decision Taken:

To determine the designations of seats to ungrouped Independent members following the Council's decision on political balance on 1 February 2018.
