

The questions that the Board needs to ask are:

- 1. Is the plan feasible?
- 2. Is there budget available?
- 3. Does the plan address priorities in Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy?
- 4. Do plans address inequalities proactively?
- 5. Do plans address needs in the Joint Strategic Needs Assessment?
- 6. Do plans promote a joined-up approach?
- 7. Do plans promote services closer to home?
- 8. Do plans promote community resilience?
- 9. Do plans align financial and human resources across partners?
- 10. Do plans shift to prevention and self care?