Dear Licencing Department

In reply to your e-mail that I received today I would like to point out that I did e-mail you in October 2015 informing you of this offence. Also, I would have thought that the authorities would have automatically informed you as well. I feel that making me wait 5 – 6 weeks to explain this minor offence in front of the Licencing Committee is totally unfair. This incident was nothing more than a domestic argument between myself and my partner where a window on my own property got broken. I have already lost over a weeks work during one of the bays busiest weekends, how am I supposed to survive for a couple of months with no money coming in. I would appreciate it if you would re-consider issuing my Taxi Licence as soon as possible.

Many thanks
