

Kingston Fire Station

Kingston fire station is one of only two in Devon and Somerset crewed by volunteers (the other is Lundy) it covers the village of Kingston and the surrounding area and a population of just 585.

Over the past five years has been an average of 9.0 incidents in the station area per year, of which 1.0 are primary fires and 1.2 are RTCs. Therefore Kingston is profiled as a low risk area.

The above times are indicative and may be affected by various factors

Stats 2018

This data relates to attendances made by fire engines from the stations at incidents in 2018

Kingston Fire Station

All incidents on Kingston Station Ground		Number of those incidents attended by Kingston Station
All incidents excluding co-responder	12	All incidents excluding co-responder	4 (33%)
All Fires	8	All Fires	3 (38%)
Dwelling Fires	1	Dwelling Fires	1 (100%)
Road Traffic Collisions	0	Road Traffic Collisions	0 (0%)
Co-responders	1	Co-responders	NA

Modbury Fire Station

All incidents on Modbury Station Ground		Number of those incidents attended by Modbury Station
All incidents excluding co-responder	26	All incidents excluding co-responder	18 (69%)
All Fires	13	All Fires	9 (69%)
Dwelling Fires	1	Dwelling Fires	1 (100%)
Road Traffic Collisions	0	Road Traffic Collisions	0 (0%)
Co-responders	4	Co-responders	NA

Volunteers

No guaranteed availability

Availability of first fire engine

88%

