33/03	Matters Brought Forward At The Discretion Of The Chair. Nothing was reported.
34/03	Local Strategic Plan Copies of the draft version of the plan were circulated for discussion. Both Councillor COLBORNE and PC BARRETT explained that several consultation meetings have been undertaken to invite comments from the community. A discussion took place on what the impact of the plan would be and it was felt that our present meetings fit within the framework of the plan. All members of the meeting were invited to read the plan themselves and to complete the feedback form enclosed within it.
35/03	Youth Issues
35.01/03	Roselands School Mr MILLYARD reported that there had been some damaged caused over the half-term period at the end of October when roof tiles had been broken.
	Mr MILLYARD also stated that work was underway on the top part of the field at the school which could attract attention. Efforts have been taken to make this as secure as possible.
35.02/03	Churston Broadway PC BARRETT had spoken with his colleague PC CHAMBERS about the youths that congregate in the area of the shops. Attention has been paid to the area by both officers and no offences have been observed.
36/03	Neighbourhood Watch Mr HARDING was not at the meeting to offer any report. Some concern was raised over whether the building site on the old Seafield Hotel would be made secure and if not what	PC BARRETT
