What is the Torbay Library and Leisure Card?

The Library and Leisure Card offers Torbay residents reduced entry charges to a wide range of indoor and outdoor health and recreational activities.

You can also use the card at any Torbay Library to borrow books, hire DVDs, CDs and language courses or take advantage of free internet and email access. Free computer taster sessions are also on offer for those who have not used a computer before – just ask staff for details.

Conditions

of use

The Library and Leisure Card is absolutely free but you will need to renew it in April each year.

The card must be shown at all participating venues to allow you any discounts being offered. You should inform Torbay Library Services of any change in your circumstances.

Where can I use my card?

The scheme only applies to those venues and services listed in the enclosed pamphlet. This is updated as offers change.

Join today!

You can join at any Torbay library (except the Mobile Library). Simply take along your proof of benefit and ask for a Library and Leisure Card.
