

Licence to work Safe Working Practices

The Health and Safety Executive may grant a licence to work. Atypical example is Work with Asbestos as controlled by the Asbestos (Licensing) Regulations 1983.

A Licensed Person should not be confused with a Competent Person, a Qualified Person or a Certificate of Competence. Only the HSE may licence a firm or person required by law to hold a Licence to Work.