Torbay Festival of Poetry

Between the 19th and 23rd October the annual Torbay Festival of Poetry will be held in various locations across Torbay. A variety of events are set to take place including Readings, Workshops, Competitions, Guided Tour and much more. Programmes are available from all local Tourist Offices.

October Weather

The first part of the month will be unsettled with the remnants of Hurricane Helene dominating. Heavy rain and gale force winds are forecast as a result. However, the latter part of the month sees the return of high pressure with dry conditions and above average temperatures. There is still the chance of heavy rain showers but these will be fewer and far between.
