

6.1 Conclusion

6.2 Mr Hennessey in first 5 months running the premises fell short of professional standards expected of licensees. By failing to adhere to the terms of his premises licences he undermined the licensing objectives instead of promoting. Only after the threat of a review did Mr Hennessey bring noise nuisance under control and begin to repair trust with his neighbours.

6.3 Between April and November 2020 there were no complaints. One in November but no more during the Christmas and the New Year trading period. Despite the initial infringements for at least a greater part of 2019 Mr Hennessey proved he could run his premises to midnight and promote the licensing objectives.
