

If this development goes ahead will it set a precedent for further development along the sea-side of the front? ie: Princess Gardens or Corbyn Head, and if that is the case should it therefore be refused?

Alan Griffey