of wounds or sickness during and between the two great wars of 1914-18 and 1939-45 and in subsequent conflicts.

Order of Service

At 11 o'clock a period of silence will be kept with the firing of the first Maroon.

THE LAST POST

SILENCE

The conclusion of the Silence will be marked by the second Maroon.

REVEILLE

THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

Spoken by the Deputy Lieutenant of Devon Vice Admiral Sir Richard Ibbotson KBE CB DSC DL

Let us remember before God, and commend to His sure keeping:

those who have died for their country in war;

those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;

and all who have lived and died in the service of mankind.

THE EXHORTATION

Spoken by The Worshipful The Mayor of Torbay (Cllr. Mandy Darling)

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old;

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning

We will remember them.

*And all shall repeat: We will remember them.

The Mayor's Chaplain says:

ALMIGHTY and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: Hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of your love, and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We are here to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good: whose power sustains the world He has made; who loves us, though we have failed in His service; who gave Jesus Christ for the life of the world; who by His Holy Spirit leads us in His way.

As we give thanks for His great works, we remember those who have lived and died in His service and in the service of others; we pray for all who suffer through war and are in need; we ask for His help and blessing that we may do His will, and that the whole world may acknowledge Him as Lord and King.

HYMN

1. O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home.
2. Beneath the shadow of Thy throne, Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
3. Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame, From everlasting Thou art God, To endless years the same.
4. A thousand ages in Thy sight, Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.
5. O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home.

LESSON

Read by Lieut-Colonel Ray Irving

Psalm 121 (A song of ascents)

I lift up my eyes to the mountains - where does my help come from?

My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot slip - he who watches over you will not slumber;

Indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord watches over you - the Lord is your shade at your right hand;

The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord will keep you from all harm - he will watch over your life;

The Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

ACT OF PENITENCE

The Mayor's Chaplain says:

Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world; its pride, its selfishness, its greed, its evil divisions and hatreds.

Let us confess our share in what is wrong, and our failure to seek and establish that peace which God wills for His children.

After a short silence, all say:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned in thought, word and deed. We have not loved you with our whole heart. We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us to amend what we are, and direct what we shall be that we may do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with you, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Mayor's Chaplain says:

Almighty God have mercy upon us, pardon and deliver us from all our sins, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

INTERCESSION

The Mayor's Chaplain says:

Let us pray for those who carry the responsibility of government throughout the world:

O GOD, by whom the meek are guided in judgement; grant unto Charles our King, and to the rulers and governments of this and every nation, in all their doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what you would have them to do. May we be mindful of our duty to uphold them by our constant prayers; that the spirit of wisdom may save them from all false choices; that in your light they may see light, and in your straight path may not stumble; Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

Let us pray for all who still suffer as a result of man's inhumanity to man...

O GOD, you are the refuge of the broken, the friendless, and innocent victims of war; we commend to your Fatherly care all who have suffered in the service of their country;

the relatives of those who have fallen, and all to whom war brings sadness and sorrow; sustain them and relieve them in times of anxiety. Grant that they may find help and sympathy from all, enable us to share their burdens and hearten them in time of need, and so fulfil the law of Jesus Christ our Lord. Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

Let us pray for a new sense of peace and justice...

O GOD, you have made of one blood all nations, mercifully receive our prayers that we offer for our anxious and troubled world. Send your light into our darkness, and guide the nations as one family into the ways of peace. Take away all prejudice, hatred and fear. Strengthen in us day by day the will to understand. And to those who by their counsels lead the people of the earth, grant a right judgement, so that through them and us your will be done. Lord, hear our prayer: Lord, hear our prayer.

Together: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.

HYMN

1. Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens;
Lord with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.
3. I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?

Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4. I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.
5. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and Earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

ACT OF COMMITMENT

The Mayor's Chaplain says:

Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and mankind; that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All say together:

Lord God Our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve you and all mankind, in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering, and for the praise of your name.

Guide us by your Spirit;
Give us wisdom; Give us courage; Give us hope; And keep us faithful now and always. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done;

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

LAYING OF WREATHS

THE KOHIMA EPITAPH

*Spoken by The Worshipful
The Mayor of Torbay
(Cllr. Mandy Darling)*

When you go home, tell them of us and say for your tomorrow we gave our today.

BLESSING

God grant to the living,
grace; to the departed, rest;
to the Church, the King,
the Commonwealth, and all mankind, peace and concord;
and to us and all his servants, life everlasting; and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, come down upon you and remain with you always.

Amen.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Played by the Combined Band (no musical introduction)

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store,
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign!
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.
