

Application for a Voter Authority Certificate

You can also apply online at voter-authority-certificate.service.gov.uk

From 4 May 2023, you must present photo ID when voting at a polling station for some elections.

You can check what type of elections require photo ID and view the list of accepted photo ID at electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID.

If you do not already have one of the accepted forms of photo ID, or you are not sure whether your photo ID still looks like you, you can complete this form to apply for a Voter Authority Certificate. A Voter Authority Certificate can be used as photo ID when voting at a polling station and is free of charge.

Your local Electoral Registration Office can support you with this application. You can find their details at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter.

This form does not apply to Northern Ireland. Visit eoni.org.uk for more information.

How do I apply?

1. You must be eligible to vote, and registered, to get a Voter Authority Certificate. Contact your local Electoral Registration Office if you do not know if you are registered. If you are not registered, they can provide you with a paper voter registration form or you can register online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.
2. Fill in this form. You will need the address where you are registered to vote, a recent photo of you, and your National Insurance number. You can still apply if you cannot provide a National Insurance number but you will need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.
3. Return your completed application form to your local Electoral Registration Office. You can find their address at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter. They must receive your form by 5pm, 6 working days before the election you want to vote in.

Please do not send your form to the Electoral Commission.
